

ROULEAU, Robert D. Robert D. Rouleau, 67, of Bolton, died on April 11th, 2010. He was born December 21, 1942 in New Britain to the late George and Rose "Demerse" Rouleau. He graduated from University of Connecticut in 1965 with a degree in accounting. He then found his love of his life Margaret Brissette. Besides his wife, he is survived by his daughter Jacqueline and her husband David Langdon of Colchester, son-in law Isaac Rios of Manchester, grandson Dominic Andrusio, and brother Roland Rouleau and wife Joan of East Greenwich, RI. He was predeceased by his daughter Michele Rios (February 16th). Robert was an active member in the Bolton Vol. Fire Dept. as EMT and Fire Police. He was faithful parishioner of St. Maurice Church in Bolton, as a member Knights of Columbus, a Eucharistic Minister, usher, parish council, and finance committee. Memorial Service will be held on Saturday (April 17, 2010) for Robert and Michele at St. Maurice Church, 32 Hebron Rd., Bolton, CT at 10 a.m. Memorial donation may be made to the Knight of Columbus care of St. Maurice Church, 32 Hebron Rd., Bolton, CT 06043 or blood donations to the American Red Cross.

Published in Hartford Courant on April 15, 2010